Dear Gentlemen,

Thank you for your letter to the Editor dated December 22nd, 1994.

Our emerging democratic culture - for which we have paid so dearly for - allows all kinds of ideas, opinions and views. It tolerates calumny and abuse. It also entitles editors and publishers to decide on what to publish in the interest of decency and national interest.

We are afraid that your 'hate mail' qualifies only for the dust bins and not the pages of any publication worthy its salt. ~~We will appreciate if this kind of correspondence is discontinued as it serves no useful purpose other than fortify our fears about the savageness of our society.~~

Yours sincerely

Hon. Njehu Gatabaki, MP
